

How can I use PhotoStory 3?

A list of actual examples for classroom use!

- Create a movie to introduce yourself to your students
- Have other staff create movies to introduce themselves to students, parents, and community
- “What I did this summer” digital stories with images
- “Getting to Know You” movie autobiographies
- Classroom Rules Movie
- Create a movie to show what is expected in class
- Details a historical event
- Famous Cities or Landmarks
- Biographies
- Book reports
- Oral Reports with visual aids
- Math Problem Explanation: how problem was solved (each step can be scanned in and explained)
- Math Problem of the Week solved through images and narration
- Digital Story Telling - Anyone can draw their own pictures, use their own photos, or get pictures online then narrate their story.
- Public Service Announcements
- Poetry - record one line on a picture
- Poetry – Student collaborate in groups where each student is reading section of the poem over images or hand draw pictures
- Fieldtrips – images and student narration
- Open House – Slideshow of students working or student work
- Student Work Portfolio
- New vocabulary – Slide show including: word, definition, synonyms, antonyms, word used in a sentence, images, drawings
- Key terms and concepts – create reviews or have student create them as a form of assessment
- Interviews of parents, people in the community, siblings, school personnel, etc.
- Oral history projects
- Scientific Process-- explain any processes or experiments
- Reports replace the pen/paper or PowerPoint presentation
- Create a family timeline
- Family Memories
- Sports Highlight Film
- Digital Yearbook for Club or Classroom
- Create a Historical timeline
- Story Map - draw pictures for each of the story elements
- Reading Skill Practice- illustrations of cause and effect
- Family Tree Presentations
- Paperless Research Paper
- Talking book
- Famous artist, writer, singer
- My Hero Project
- A Day in the Life
- Local historical landmark
- Career Connections – Research on careers and create informational movies that could used as a mini career fair in the classroom
- Digital Picture stories
- Photo Journals for labs
- Instructional Videos
- Assessment for science lab
- Illustration of a process
- Commercials
- Personal Reflection
- Fictional stories
- Creative writing